

Using Your Left-Handed Brain #3

When images are not complete, your left-hand brain ties together the separate parts of the picture to make sense of it. This is called closure.

Look at the images below. Can you figure out what each object is?

Your left-hand brain is doing all the work here.

